

Clockwise from top left Small but perfectly formed, the Magimix Le Mini Plus is easy to store and boasts a quiet 400W motor. Expect to pay around £118. Tel: 01483 427411.
www.magimix.com

Microstoven stoneware is superb for dishes cooked both on the stove top and in the oven. A H31cm Tagine costs £70 and a L32cm lasagne tray costs £35, at Maxwell & Williams. Tel: 020 8200 5100.
www.maxwellandwilliams.co.uk

Corningware is so heat-resistant it can go straight from the freezer and into a hot oven. A W19cm casserole costs around £28, at World Kitchen. Tel: 020 8796 5712.
www.worldkitchen.co.uk

Le Creuset cast iron pans have a reputation for cooking excellence, and are available in a range of hues. Expect to pay £64 for a W16cm pan in Teal. Tel: 0800 373792.
www.lecreuset.co.uk

Designer electric scales like the Uma by Bugatti work out weights to the nearest 1g for greater accuracy. Including a digital timer, it costs £115, at wheredidyoubuythat. Tel: 020 8450 5600.
www.wheredidyoubuythat.com

Grate ginger, parmesan or lemon zest straight into the pan with the Microplane. Complete with a soft-touch handle, it costs £24, at ICTC. Tel: 01603 488019. www.ictc.co.uk

www.ekbb.co.uk